

Introducing the new fabrics collection
of Lelievre Paris :

The flutter of a bird's wings, lush vegetation and lustrous leaves.
A thick and vibrant oasis. A house that you second guess is there. Wood.
That spicy smell after rain's trickled over pebbles and bark.
You move closer. Revert to another time.

Push the door. Turn around. Watch the light gently caress the terracotta tiles at an angle. A peacefulness resides. A warmth embraces you with its velvet touch and then, you hear a startling yet muffled noise in the bushes.
You see a flash of fur or was it glazed feathers. A wild animal, perhaps?
These wonderful snippets, visuals and memories emerge and inspire.

From this dream world, the Lelièvre studio created a brand new collection where the walls' patina merge and the various natural materials and vintage ceramics, inspire the motifs that make up the stunning new range.
The oversized foliage fuses with the extraordinary jungle that surrounds it, its beautiful fibres inspiring the various colours and textures explored in the collection.

This moment of contemplation brings us down myriad paths, blending various geometric shapes, chromatic depth and soft materials. It's a medley for the senses, a joyful moment that you will look back on wistfully.

Whilst their imagination might run wild when designing, Maison Lelièvre's world-renowned expertise and savoir-faire can well and truly be seen in their new collection numero 22.
